CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BRIDGEPORT

RULES OF ORDER

I.

Order and Appeal

The presiding officer shall preserve order and decorum, may speak on questions of order in preference to other members, and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Council by motion regularly seconded. No other business shall be in order until the question on the appeal shall have been decided.

II.

Order of Motions

When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received by the presiding officer except:

Without Debate < <<<<< < To fix the time of Adjournment
< To Adjourn.
< To Reconsider.
< To Lay on the Table.
< For the Previous Question.

To Postpone to a certain Time.

To Commit or Re-commit.

To Amend, or

To Postpone indefinitely (unamendable) which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they stand arranged. The presiding officer shall declare all votes; if a vote be doubted, the presiding officer shall order arising vote without further debate.

III.

No Debate on Amendment

A motion to fix the time in which to adjourn, or such a motion not being before the meeting, then one to adjourn shall always be in order. A motion to adjourn, to fix the time in which to adjourn, to reconsider, to lay on the table and for the previous question shall be decided without debate and without amendment, except the motion to fix the time in which to adjourn, which can be amended by altering the time.

IV.

The Previous Question

The previous question shall be in this form: "I move the previous question". It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present, and until it is decided, shall preclude all amendments and debate of the main question, and after adoption of the previous question, the sense of the Board shall forthwith be taken upon all pending amendments in their order and then upon the main question.

V.

Amendments and Divisions

No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of an amendment. All questions shall be divided - when the sense will admit of it - on demand of any member.

VI.

Endorsements and Presentation

All resolutions, ordinances or orders shall be endorsed with the name of the mover thereon, and shall be taken up in the order of their presentation, unless otherwise ordered by the Board, or unless the subsequent motion be previous in its nature; except that in naming sums and fixing times, the largest sums and the longest time shall be put first.

VII.

Restrictions on Speaking

Only members of the City Council may speak on any matter before the Council at a Council meeting unless by a majority vote of all the members of the City Council, or at a duly scheduled Public Hearing. At City Council committee meetings only members of the particular committee may first speak on any matter pending before the committee. Thereafter, any other City Council person in attendance may speak as of right. No other persons may speak at a committee meeting except at a duly scheduled Public Hearing or as permitted by the Councilperson chairing the meeting when in the exercise of the chairperson's discretion it is deemed to be in the best interest of the committee to do so. When a member is about to speak in debate he shall respectfully address the presiding officer; shall confine himself to the question under debate and avoid personalities or imputing to any member improper motives. No member shall speak more than once on a question until each member choosing to speak shall have spoken. It shall be unnecessary for a member to rise from his seat either to be recognized or to speak.

VIII.

Calls to Order

No member speaking shall be interrupted by another, except by a call to order or to correct a mistake. If any member, in speaking or otherwise transgress the rules of the Board, the presiding officer shall, and any member may, call to order, in which case the member so called to order shall sit down, unless permitted to explain. When there is an appeal to the Board, and a decision in favor of the member called to order, he shall be at liberty to proceed, but not otherwise.

IX.

Motion to Reconsider

The mover of a question may withdraw his motion at any time before a decision or amendment, and when a motion has been carried in the affirmative or negative, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the majority to move a reconsideration thereof at the same, or at a meeting next succeeding that at which the vote was passed; and such motion shall take precedence of all other questions except a motion to fix the time to which to adjourn, and to adjourn; but no question can be twice reconsidered, nor can a vote which has caused action that cannot be reversed or reconsidered.

X.

All Must Vote

No member shall be excused from voting on any question unless he is personally interested in the result, except by unanimous consent. No member shall be permitted, under any circumstances whatever, to vote after the decision is announced from the chair.

XI.

Motion in Writing

When a motion is made and seconded it shall be stated by the presiding officer, or being in writing shall be read aloud, before debated. Every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the presiding officer or any member desires it.
