Navigation

Two ways to navigate through the Table of Contents (TOC):

• Linking through the levels is the first way. Click the title of a folder from the TOC to view the information contained within. Then, click on the link for the next level, and so on. Until you reach the last level in the hierarchy, the Section level.

 Expanding the levels within the TOC is the second. Clicking the folder icon will expand the folder to show its contents within the left side Table of Contents (TOC). You can continue expanding until you reach the last level, the Section level. Clicking on any item will open it in the right side content frame.

Narrowing your search range:

- Choose 'Selected' in the drop down menu next to the Go button.
- Select the specific heading(s) you'd like to search within by placing a check mark to the left of your choice(s).
- Click Go for search results related only to the areas you selected.

<Back to the top>

The Results button:

• The Results button will take you back to the list of results from your most recent search. (note: this is a session-based feature; your results will be lost after exiting a city's online municipal code).

The History button:

• The History button lets you pull up the search result list from a previous search by selecting it from a list. The History also gives you some information regarding your past searches for the current browsing session (as shown below). Once you exit the website, the history is cleared.
